Discussion Questions:

1. What impacted you and/or what did you learn from our study of Psalm 15 this week?
2. What impacted you and/or what did you learn about the Gospel? What did you learn about God's character, Man's sinfulness and need, Christ's atonement and how He meets our need, or God's call on us to Respond?
3. Read Psalm 15:1. How would our corporate worship on Sunday change if we intentionally spent time contemplating God's holiness and our sinfulness before we gathered?
4. Read Psalm 15:2. In what ways are we tempted to focus on growing in the areas that are easy and ignoring the areas which are a real struggle? How does God's call to integrity call us to grow in the difficult areas?
5. Why is it so dangerous to define our Christian life primarily by the things we don't do rather than by our active obedience to the Lord? What are some practical ways we can be tempted to fall into this kind of thinking?
6. Read Psalm 15:3-4a. Which of the four areas Johnny pointed out to us do we struggle with the most – and why? (Slander, causing harm, cutting others with our words, and rightly appraising/valuing others.)
7. Read Psalm 15:4b-5. How binding is your word? What if God's word in verse 5 that we would never be moved was as binding as our own word?
8. Read Psalm 15:5. Who has done all these things? How does our hope in Him and the impossibility of Him being moved give us hope to approach God's Holy Hill?
